Two Semesters of Language:

• Two semesters of either Chinese or Japanese, at a level appropriate to your in-coming language abilities.

Three Core Courses:

• One 100-level course on China from among 110 (Introduction to Chinese Literature), 120 (Confucianizing China), or 131 (Chinese Civilization); and

• One 100-level course on Japan: either 110 (Myth, Folklore, and Legend in Japan) or 132 (Japanese Civilization); and

• EALC 200 (Methods and Approaches to East Asian Cultures).

Three Departmental Electives:

• Three courses by our BiCo EALC faculty, one at the 300 level.

Two Non-departmental Electives:

• Two courses outside EALC related your study of East Asia or the wider Asian world.

One-semester Senior Thesis: Fall term of your senior year

OUR MINORS:

Chinese and Japanese Language Minors:

• Six semesters each, four taken in our Bi-Co programs. See Directors Tetsuya Sato or Shizhe Huang.

Global Asian Studies Minor:

• Six courses centrally concerned with Asia, drawn from any department in the Quaker Consortium or associated Study Abroad programs. See Professors Paul Smith or Saleha Jilani.