THE SITUATION:
Facing budget cuts, Philly schools are extremely under-resourced this year. Counseling has been hit especially hard. Some schools do not have counselors; others are sharing one with seven other schools.

WHAT WE CAN DO TO HELP:
MFP seeks to recruit a cohort of Philadelphia-area college students to help Philly high school seniors with college applications through a once a week, in-person mentoring program.

INFORMATION SESSIONS:
Thursday, September 19
8:00 PM in Chase Auditorium at Haverford College
9:15 PM in Dalton 25 at Bryn Mawr College
